The new series by bestselling author Katja Brandis: Dragon Detective Scaly investigates

Volume 1: It gets wild in the colourful magic forest!

- > A funny fantastic mystery with an endearing trio of detectives
- > A dream team: successful author Katja Brandis and illustrator Frédéric Bertrand
- > Captivating and funny
- > Volume 2 will be published in Autumn 2022

Scaly loves bubble baths, lava lemonade – and criminal cases. He is a dragon detective and always on the scene when something strange happens in his hometown Wormstead. When a crying unicorn appears in his headquarters and tells him a story about a dangerous magical rubbish heap, Scaly does not have to be asked twice: Together with his friends, the cool cat Greywacke and the feisty elf Jessamy, he eagerly starts investigating the case. In the depths of the magic forest, an unbelievable adventure awaits them ...

The start of a new children's books series by Katja Brandis ("Woodwalkers"/"Seawalkers") with many illustrations by Frédéric Bertrand ("Please do not open!"-series). Fantastical, funny, super exciting and a great read!

AUTHOR

Katja Brandis was born in 1970; she studied English, American and German language and literature and worked as a journalist. She has been writing since her childhood and has published many stories, novels, and non-fiction books for young readers, the bestselling series "Woodwalkers" and "Seawalkers", among others. She lives with her husband, son, and three cats near Munich.

Three reasons why you should take a closer look at this new series:

- > Katja Brandis has created an original world brimming with fantastic details
- > Scaly and his side-kicks have a great sense of humour
- > Frédéric Bertrand's illustrations capture the character's wit perfectly

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

It is a new year, and it has brought with it a new season of books! Feel very much invited to take a closer look at our best recommendations.

In picture book, WHO'S NEXT? (page 13) stands out with its fresh and modern illustrations (and a very clever hen doctor!).

As for new children's fiction, there are many truly delightful things:

First of all, our new highlight DRAGON DETECTIVE SCALY (pages 2/3) has all the ingredients of a bestselling series: great characters, an exciting story, and hilarious illustrations. And BEAR IN THE UNIVERSE (page 15), originally an award-winning play, manages to present the topic of climate change in such a funny, poetic, and heart-warming way that it will surely become an absolute favourite.

MY SMALL-TOWN LIFE (page 27) should not be missed, either: The move of a rallying teenager from the city to the countryside is a change the author Silke Antelmann describes in the most hilarious way.

In YA, you can expect thrills and chills: THREE-QUARTERS DEAD (page 34) is a dark story that will make you hold your breath while turning the pages; while the SIGNS OF MAGIC trilogy (page 33) offers a fantastic journey that will keep everyone reading long after bed-time.

This is not all, however: we hope you will enjoy browsing for more picture books and engaging novels, and to be reintroduced to our favourite characters.

And what kind of work do you do?

- > A different kind of day care story
- > Offers sneak peeks into the working world of adults
- > Opens conversations between children and parents

Lara and Elias are always very busy at day care: exchanging breakfast snacks, treating injured soft toys, and building the highest towers. But what are Mum and Dad doing while the children are so busy – are they bored? This small board book shows that Lara's Mum is also building high towers and that her Dad does not treat toys but people.

Lovely Stories about Friendship

- > Helping each other makes everyone happy
- > Warm-hearted

Little Bumblebee happily buzzes over the field of flowers and let's itself - flop! - drop onto the most beautiful and softest blossom. So cosy! In the evening, Cricket and Bee are looking for a place to sleep, too. Will Bumblebee offer its new friends a spot?

Little Hedgehog loves splashing around in the pond. It would be so much more fun together with others but he never really fits in when mice and squirrels play together in the forest. Then the little hedgehog has an idea. He shows the others what he can do best - rolling around in the leaves. Everyone wants to join him for that and, together, they have a lot of fun!

Rosie Mariposy – and all her emotions!

- > The first board book with the picture book heroine Rosie Mariposy
- > Emotions made understandable for the youngest
- > Cute rhymes for the most affectionate moments between parents and child

Rosie is happy, sometimes sad, at times even angry or feeling terrible! That's what it's like with emotions – so it's all the more important to have a favourite person you can always count on. Someone who gives you courage, who is ready for any mischief, and who is always there to comfort and cuddle you. An ideal present for children, parents, siblings and friends.

AUTHOR

Stefanie Hahn lives and works in Berlin. She is a freelance product developer and producer of toys and children's books. "Rosie Mariposy" is a project very close to her heart.

Another picture book story with Rosie Mariposy

- > A plea for diversity and solidarity
- > Rosie helps her friends to stop arguing

In the magic forest where Rosie Mariposy lives, everyone is celebrating the Meadow's Fair today and all are busy decorating. "Wait, stop. Blue? No way! The garlands will have to be yellow, as always!" the cow moos. The ladybug wants everything to be red, and the frog only wants green. What about pink? Rosie asks herself. And soon, there is a big fight going on: Each one of the animals only wants their favourite colour. But you can only have a happy celebration all together, Rosie thinks, and, together with her friend Bo, has a great idea. Because: Be it red, blue, green, or yellow – only a world full of all the colours is beautiful!

Family story to read aloud

- > Important topic: jealousy, dealt with in an entertaining story
- > Four-colour illustrations by Dorothee Mahnkopf

Visitors in the rabbit hole! The little rabbit Josch is thrilled because he is looking forward to his new playmates. But it does not take long until the two guests, Lilli and Putt, thoroughly annoy him. It turns out that they always behave perfectly and soon win over all the adults. Even his own mother has eyes only for Lilli and Putt. Luckily, Josch's friend, the little bee, has an idea: Together with the squirrel Chip, they will show the animals how boring it gets when everyone is on their best behaviour all the time!

A funny and warm-hearted story that shows you don't have to work hard to be loved but that you are always perfect, just the way you are.

The last polar bear is looking for a friend

- > Deals with the topics protection of species and climate change
- > Four-colour illustrations by Horst Hellmeier
- > For children aged 5 +

English sample translation available

The ice sheet is melting away while the little polar bear Benny is still sitting on it. He starts his search for a new home – and for a friend with whom he can have a family. Otherwise, he fears, his species will become extinct. Benny finds a friend in Polly, the chicken, but although she is a really good friend, she simply refuses to marry and have young ones with him. So he places a lonely-hearts ad and meets with other, very nice animals: but neither the giraffe Anni, nor the whale Ute are the right fit for him. Ute can hold her breath much longer than he can, and it's simply too hot for him where Anni lives ... But then Benny gets mail from Isabella, and he dares to become hopeful once more.

Quite cheeky, this fairy!

- > Great reading aloud fun
- > Fairy magic as a confidence booster: a fairy helps a little girl to overcome her fears
- > With four-colour illustrations by Maja Bohn

The little fairy Hoppipolla accidentally got caught in a cereal box in Iceland and ends up in the pantry of Malou's family. She is a little grumpy when Malou discovers her. But soon the two become best friends. Hoppipolla supports Malou in tricky situations and makes her feel much more confident. When Malou wants to have a dog their secret friendship is seriously put to the test. But a little bit of fairy magic helps with that.

With lots of humour and charming characters, Ilke Prick tells a story of how easy it can sometimes be to overcome your fears.

Emilia, Max, the snooping pig and an inventor-grandpa are the members of the Monster Hunter Club. No monster, ghost or spectre can keep hidden from them! Humorous comic style illustrations make text comprehension easier.

Griselda Graus has inherited a ghost train - with real monsters! They do not only annoy her but also the many passengers on the ghost train. Luckily, the Monster Hunter Club is quickly on the scene, armed with Monster Blower and Monster Mobile. With the help of the reader, they have to solve quite a lot of riddles in order to get rid of the monsters on the ghost train.

In the second volume, the MHC (MonsterHuntingClub) takes on a gang of cheeky ghosts. They are haunting Alb Castle and depriving Count Gustav of his sleep. With lots of courage and detective skills, the Monster Hunters chase through the secret corridors of the castle and are close on the spooky bullies' heels. But it gets tricky because the little rascals are cunning ...

Suna is supposed to draw a picture of her best friend for school. But does she actually have one? Even a sort of casting does not make things clearer for her. Only when Henri steals Suna's favourite cap, Marie, Fatima, and Nora are immediately at her side to help. Suddenly, Suna realizes that she does not only have one best friend - but three!

Bees Day at Daria's! Frieda and Mario are allowed to watch when Daria's mom is checking the beehives. The bee colonies are doing perfectly well! Just a few roads down it's a totally different picture though. A big meadow has been destroyed when a new road was built, and now the bees cannot find enough nectar to survive. Without hesitation, the three friends decide to save the beehive and give it a new home in Daria's garden.

An Unlikely Rescue Team

- > A tumultuous adventure full of imaginative ideas
- > Family story
- > With b/w illustrations by Tine Schulz

AUTHOR

Luise Holthausen, born 1959, used to work in a bank before discovering the world of children's books. These days she lives and works as a freelance writer in Bochum. In 2014 she received the Preuschhof Prize for the best new publication for first readers.

ILLUSTRATOR

Tine Schulz has studied Communication Design and Illustration and works as graphic designer and illustrator. She lives in Rostock.

To Finn's big amazement, a brightly green fluffy monster suddenly appears in his room. It is called Anton, always very hungry, and answers any questions with words like argh!, away! or alright! The next day, however, he uses boring!, bold!, or bother ...

Finn slowly realizes that Anton used to be an ordinary toy, and that he has run away from the wicked toy seller Willecke, who, with the help of a machine, brings dolls and action figures to life and trains them to become thieves. Clearly, Willecke has to be stopped. But for that, Finn and Anton also need the help of Finn's father, a very eager but slightly chaotic inventor, whose head seems to be in the clouds all day long.

Will the unlikely trio manage to outsmart Willecke and his monstrous machine?

A tumultuous adventure full of imaginative ideas, with funny and cheeky illustrations by Tine Schulz.

- > With many b/w comic style illustrations
- > Topics: environment, animal rights, summer holiday adventure
- > Volume 3 will be published in Autumn 2022

Tabea and her friend Einstein are already great at transforming into superheroes. Now they only have to learn what makes their fluffy hen Mafalda pick ... um... tick. Despite the successful chicken rescue, Mafalda does not seem happy at all. Is she sick?! Tabea and Einstein really don't know. And if that wasn't enough, bully Luis appears and makes their life miserable. Fortunately, there are new friends in sight! And they have really cool superhero powers!

Volume 2 of the super funny series for everyday heroes with many modern b/w illustrations by newcomer Phine Wolff.

Magical series for girls aged 8+

Final volume in the series out in Autumn 2022

- > The series' success continues: more than 75,000 copies sold in Germany
- > Friendship / adventure stories with a dash of magic

Tilda and Anni are travelling to the countryside for a short vacation: to a small cabin in the woods. Even dachshund Flea comes along! The best thing is that their new friend Lilian lives close by on a farm. When they arrive the preparations for a big farm party are in full swing. But suddenly, the laughing flower disappears which was supposed to bring fun to the party. The girls have their suspicions: a group of boys from the village might be the culprits. Tilda, Anni, and Lilian have their hands full trying to find the magical plant again and to save the party. But beware, the secret of the magical flowers must not be revealed!

Here comes Lukas, a true hero – but nobody can know about that!

- > Fast-paced and funny adventure for readers aged 9 +
- > Interspersed with many b/w illustrations by Reto Klindt
- > Volume 2 will be published in Autumn 2022

Oh no! Lukas and his entire family are put into the witness protection programme because Lukas found out about a gang of criminals and told the police. What does that mean? Well, it means: a big mess! New names, moving to a place at the end of the world, and, most importantly, the directive: DO NOT ATTRACT ATTENTION! How is that supposed to work?! After all, Lukas is famous for his pranks – and on top of that, he is a hero now! When he is seated next to the cool Elena at his new school and she thinks he is a dorky nerd, Lukas has had enough: Undercover or not, he cannot let her think that. And so chaos is sure to follow ...

A fast-paced crime comedy about a likeable hero undercover – funny and quirky, filled with action, thrills, and great laughs!

Wild adventures and romantic moments

- > “Warrior Cats” meets “Ostwind” in a dramatic story about horses, friendship and freedom
- > The captivating start of a series: Volume 2 will be published in Autumn 2022

Alba is a race horse. The snow-white mare with the cinnamon-brown eyes is one of the fastest horses there is – almost as fast as the proud stallion Nightwind whom Alba secretly admires, even though he does not talk to anyone. When Alba is brought to the same racing stable as Nightwind, to train even harder, she is full of confidence at first. But terrible things are happening in that stable. In greatest distress, Alba decides to flee. All alone, she sets off into the unknown – until she happens on a herd of wild horses on the open fields. There, great dangers, unbelievable discoveries and new friendships await Alba – and a reunion with Nightwind.

A perfect mix of horse adventure and fantasy – and the quest for one's right place in the world.

Country air? No, thank you!

- > Current topics of activism and leaving city life behind
- > Volume 2 will be published in Autumn 2022

Thirteen-year-old Fiona has to move to the countryside – to a small town in the middle of nowhere! Just because her mother has a crush on the woolly-hat-wearing eco-hipster Phil and wants to “wind down” in the vegetable patch. For Fiona, this means: No more rallies with her best friend Charly! Is she supposed to see Charly during school holidays only? No way! On Instagram, both of them start posting selfies of Fiona in front of deserted village roads and dung-hills. But while Charly is organising a campaign to “Free Fiona!”, Fiona finds new friends in the village and starts enjoying the summer days at the lake. When Charly’s rally arrives in the countryside, the moment of truth has come. Does Fiona have to make a choice?

An original book for girls, super funny, heartfelt, and with a fresh narrative voice!

Follow Kathrin Tordasi into a world in which magical secrets could be hidden behind every blackberry bush!

- > A fantastical adventure for the entire family
- > Vol. 2 will be published in autumn 2022

Sometimes a fox is more than a fox. When Ben and Portia meet each other for the first time in the old bookshop in Conwy, they do not know that they will experience the biggest adventure of their lives together. Neither do they notice the red-headed man who is hiding behind a stack of books and whose shadow takes the shape of a fox: Robin Goodfellow. Cunningly, the shapeshifter tricks the children into opening a magical door for him. Nobody opens the portal to the Otherworld and goes unpunished though ...

AUTHOR

Kathrin Tordasi was born near Stuttgart and grew up with books by Astrid Lindgren, Michael Ende and Kenneth Grahame. Nowadays she lives in Berlin and prefers writing in cafés and spending free time either by the sea or on her green urban jungle balcony.

Many have been lost after entering the Nightshade Forest. But Finn has no other option but to go there.

- > For fans of Cornelia Funke
- > Atmospheric and extremely exciting

Since his sister Hannah disappeared in the Nightshade Forest, Finn follows the rule to never enter the forest after sunset. Any path you just cleared will be overgrown again within hours. More importantly, the Moonwalker, a figure shrouded in legends, is lurking there at night. However, when Finn discovers a trail that could lead him to Hannah, he throws all caution to the wind – and follows it. In the heart of the Nightshade Forest, Finn makes a discovery that is much bigger than the secret surrounding his sister's disappearance ...

“Cinnamon” returns! The bestseller gets a second series

- > The long-awaited second series of the bestselling “Cinnamon” trilogy
- > A new independent adventure narrated over three volumes, for fans and newcomers alike

AUTHOR

Dagmar Bach, born 1978, has always been convinced that there is more than one universe. Sometimes things happen to her that are so strange that they must have been caused by one of her parallel selves. In one of those worlds she used to be an interior architect who could not keep from writing bits and pieces of stories on almost everything she could get hold of. Today, she is happy to have found her home in the universe of writing and to be able to focus on her passion of telling stories alone. Dagmar Bach lives in Munich with her family.

“This series has everything you need to feel good and get lost in!”

Samy86

At a moment's notice, Vicky's life is turned upside down. She and her boyfriend Konstantin have the unique gift to move between parallel worlds. The prime directive: Do not attract attention! But how is that supposed to work when their doppelgangers let themselves be caught while secretly kissing? Or when parallel-world-grandma almost burns down the kitchen of mum's Bed & Breakfast? While Vicky and Konstantin are still trying to gain control of the magical chaos, their love is put to the test. Someone sets up a mean trap for them and soon their trips to the parallel worlds are anything but enjoyable.

The smell of cinnamon buns, parallel worlds, and an exciting chase – a new adventure for Vicky and Konstantin, the sweetest couple in young adult books' history, begins!

The new fantastic novel by Kerstin Gier

- > Realistic-magical setting
- > Full of humour, with a heart-warming love story
- > By the bestselling author of the Ruby Red and the Silver trilogy
- > More than 200,000 copies sold since publication date in October 2021
- > Vol. 2 will be published in autumn 2022

AUTHOR

Kerstin Gier, born in 1966, published her first book as a more or less unemployed postgraduate pedagogue. With huge success: Her adult titles have reached cult status and can be found on all top ranking lists just as her books for young people, which have all become bestsellers. The author lives with her family and two cats in the vicinity of Cologne.

On the night of his best friend's seventeenth birthday, Quinn von Arensburg gets drawn into a wild chase over walls and roofs, with creatures that shouldn't even exist in the first place. The chase ends with a car knocking Quinn down, causing life-threatening injuries.

Surviving the accident is bordering on the miraculous, but doctors tell Quinn it will take months of therapy and heaps of patience before he can walk again, and resume his old life.

Moreover, Quinn is now troubled by the strange things he's been seeing and hearing: flickering lights, voices, statues coming to life, or implausible doors. Afraid he'll be declared mad, Quinn doesn't tell anyone, least of all his worried parents. And that's where Mathilda Martin comes in. She has secretly harboured a crush on Quinn for ages, and is now ready to help him get around in his wheelchair when Quinn's mother asks her to.

Quinn quickly discovers that there is more to Mathilda than he thought; and so they embark together on a journey to discover a whole new world full of magic, adventure and danger ...

The fantastic beginning of a new trilogy – “Signs-of-Magic”

- > For readers who love turbulent fantasy
- > A magical adventure told from two perspectives
- > Vol. 2 will be published in autumn 2022

AUTHOR

Mikkel Robrahn, born 1991, has been working in the gaming industry for many years. Only occupying himself with video games is too boring for him though, so he also writes books and tries to convince his pug Oskar to go for daily walks. The thing with the books works out really well for him, but a pug like his can be really stubborn.

In the densely overgrown Gwyndir Forest, the traditional jade fox hunt is about to begin. Matilda Godwins is determined to win that tournament of the superrich so she can pay the debts that weigh heavily her family's estate. Together with Albert Stubbs, whose magic powers at first seem to be more illusion than reality, and Botzki, the former caretaker of the Godwins' estate, she faces the hunters, trappers, and magicians of the other teams and goes on the hunt for the jade-green fox. But members of a powerful elite are not very keen to see Matilda win the tournament. And that is how the hunt for the jade fox turns into an adventure full of thrills and suspense ...

“Do you know those books? That make the hair at the back of your neck stand on end, the ones you think about even after you have already closed the book? Those books you cannot put down? Those

The ones you rush through the pages to finally know how terrible things are going to get? “Searching Lucy” by Christina Stein is exactly such a book!!!”

Juliane of ›Daisy Buch Reise‹ about “Searching Lucy”

When the long-awaited dream vacation turns into a horror trip

- > Christina Stein has a unique way of exploring the darkest recesses of human souls
- > With the suspense steadily increasing until the exciting showdown
- > For fans of Ursula Poznanski and Karen McManus

On the Scottish West Highland Way, Kim meets the irritatingly attractive but mysterious Sky, whom she feels drawn to – even though she is traveling with her steady boyfriend Jon. The further Kim hikes, the creepier the encounters with Sky get. The gloom of the trip is intensified by mysterious WhatsApp messages Kim receives from her best friend Emma. Are they warnings? Calls for help? Emma cannot be reached. And then Kim finds a body in an all too familiar dress.

Christina Stein has written yet another extremely suspenseful novel: breathless, atmospheric and emotional.
